National Export Strategy of Sri Lanka 2018 - 2022

Sri Lanka is on the cusp of transforming its export industry through the implementation of a National Export Strategy (NES) which was launched in 2018. The NES of Sri Lanka was developed under the aegis of the Ministry of Development Strategies and International Trade (MODSIT) and the Sri Lanka Export Development Board with financial support from the EU as part of the 'EU-Sri Lanka Trade-Related Assistance: Increasing SMEs' Trade Competitiveness in Regional and EU Markets' project. The NES was developed on the basis of the process, methodology and technical assistance of the International Trade Centre (ITC), Geneva within the framework of its Trade Development Strategy Programme.

Six focus sectors for innovation and export diversification under NES:
